

WHY I BELONG TO ST VINCENT DE PAUL

“Wonderful volunteers once opened their hearts to me with kindness and understanding, I belong to be there for others in the same way.”

“I belong because I know I can make a little change to make a big difference in the world.”

“By volunteering as a regular volunteer or as a volunteer on a special project, I can make a difference to those in need.”

“I belong because I love helping those less fortunate than me.”

“I love the opportunity to give back to our community and I get the bonus of hanging out with a neat group of people.”

“Volunteering has given me new skills, friendships and a sense of community.”

“I belong because I like visiting and helping people.”
